Debs' delight

London Erratics v V & A

With both teams having surplus players for this popular fixture, it ended up twelve a side, rotating to give eleven in the field (V&A actually had 13). On a murky day with an unpredictable forecast, a 30 overs format was agreed. V&A won the toss and elected to field.

In order not to be a drag on the scoring, skipper James Rivington nobly snicked the first ball behind. [to be continued]
